

Youth Tour Winner Announced

Range Telephone Co-op., Inc., in conjunction with the Foundation for Rural Service, will once again be sponsoring a high school junior to experience a “trip of a lifetime.”

One high school junior, Kelly Seleg of Rosebud, MT, was selected to receive an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the Foundation for Rural Service Youth Tour, - June 4 - 8, 2016. She will be joined by approximately 100 other high school juniors from across the United States.

To enter the contest, students had to write an essay on the topic, “How important do you think access to high speed internet will be for your community and personal use in the next 5 years?”

Students attending the Youth Tour will gain a first-hand look at the telecommunications industry and receive education on government processes. Students will also have an opportunity to visit famous historical sites including the Washington Monument, the Smithsonian Institution, the National Cathedral, the U.S. Capitol and Arlington National Cemetery.
